

Consultation for FRIS International Researchers

The Management and Planning Division and the DEI Working Group at FRIS are fully committed to transforming FRIS into an even more welcoming environment for international researchers. Starting in August 2024, we offer consultation services for our international colleagues, to assist with research and administration work, as well as other intercultural issues. Our aim is to ensure that your experience at FRIS is as smooth and positive as possible!

Advisor: Yohei Koyama, Specially Appointed Lecturer/ URA

Profile: Yohei studied abroad in Salt Lake City, Prague, and London during his undergraduate and postgraduate education and research. Before joining FRIS, he conducted research in disaster medicine and public health in Fukushima. In recent years, he coordinated transdisciplinary and intercultural education programs at Tokyo Gakugei University, including diversity and inclusion education and study-abroad programs in Melbourne and San Francisco. Additionally, he taught intercultural collaborative learning and multicultural education courses.

For consultations or inquiries, please feel free to email Yohei directly and schedule a face-to-face or online meeting.
